Grandpa was always going on about the good old days and the lower cost of living in particular.

"When I was a kid, my mom could send me to the store, and I'd get a salami, two pints of milk, six oranges, two loaves of bread, a magazine, and some new blue jeans...all for a dollar!" Then Grandpa said sadly, "You can't do that anymore. They got those video cameras everywhere you look."

Sherry's sister bought an unreliable car. One day, Sherry got a call from her sister. "My breaks went out," her sister said. "Can you come and get me?" "Where are you?" Sherry asked. "I'm in the drugstore," her sister responded. "And where's the car?" "In here with me."
